CURE FOR CHOLERA INFANTUM—NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL.

During last may an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail. Mrs. Curtis Baker, Bookwalter, Ohio. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

HARVEY HELM.

Present county attorney, has filled the office so well during the last three and a half years that his party gave him the nomination again without opposition. Mr. Helm is a fine young lawyer, watches closely after the county's interests and is a terror to the evil doer. He is not only one of the best county attorneys in the State but one of the largest, standing six feet three inches and weighing 235 pounds. His friends have tried to get Mr. Helm to run for Congress and other high offices, but he is content to serve his home people as county attorney and declines to offer for any other office. He will not have opposition from the republican party and will walk into the office again as easily as he got the nomination for it. Mr. Helm is a graduate of Central University, represented this county very creditably in the Legislature and is a democrat of the old school. He has done good work for the party in Lincoln county and is ready at all times to further the cause of democracy in any way he can.

LANCASTER.

Quite a number of our people went over to Preachersville to attend the camp meeting Sunday and Sunday night. They say more than a thousand people were there and that excellent behavior was maintained throughout the entire day.

At 12 o'clock Saturday night, Mr. Reuben Naylor, who has been sick for about two years, passed peacefully away at his home on Crab Orchard street. He died of a complication of diseases, of which Bright's was the chief one. He was 77 years of age and leaves a wife to mourn his loss. Another one of our good citizens has crossed the river which we, too, shall soon be called upon to cross.

Friday night four prisoners, Charley White, Kerry Robinson and Cornelius Ballard, colored, and Will John Carpenter, white, broke jail here and escaped. One of them, Cornelius Ballard, who seemed to like the lock-up better than any place else, returned of his own sweet will, but Jailer Ross and Marshal Turner, who left immediately in search of the fugitives, have not been able to locate the remaining three. Deputy Marshal Siler thinks he has the white man spotted and has gone to get him. A defective place in one of the cells allowed the fellows to get into the curridor. They then removed the bricks from the wall by means of a poker.

Miss Pearl Ross is recuperating at Dripping Springs.

The best remedy for stomach and bowel troubles.

"I have been in the drug business for twenty years and have sold most all of the proprietary medicines of any note. Among the entire list I have never found anything to equal Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles," says O. W. Wakefield of Columbus, Ga. "This remedy cured two severe cases of cholera morbus in my family and I have recommended and sold hundreds of bottles of it to my customers to their entire satisfaction. It affords a quick and sure cure in a pleasant form. No family should be without it. It is kept in my house at all times." For sale by Craig & Hocker.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL has the honor to first announce Mr. W. P. Walton, of the Harrodsburg Democrat, for Railroad Commissioner, subject, of course, to the action of the democratic party. Those who know him, and most of the people in Kentucky do, realize his eminent fitness for the position he aspires and further realize that his valiant service for the party he loves entitles him to anything democracy can give him, without effort and without opposition. Many years experience in the building of railroads and with eye and heart keen to justice, neither railroads nor the State will suffer with him as commissioner, while his friends will look with pride on the record he makes.

THE damage suit of J. M. Richardson, of the Glasgow Times, against R. W. Knott, editor of the Louisville Post, and Post Publishing Company, was settled by the Post retracting the article complained of and paying all costs of suit, including plaintiff's attorneys' fees, all personal expenses of plaintiff in the suit and confessing judgment for one cent and costs. The suit grew out of a publication in the Post to the effect that the Board of Prison Commissioners, of which J. M. Richardson is a member, had sold the State penitentiary beef contract to the Armour Meat Company. It is estimated that the suit cost $2,000.

PROUD of this handsome compliment of our brother by the Danville News, we give it the prominence it deserves. It does our very soul good to see the handsome way the boys of the press are standing by our old friend W. P. Walton. If ever a laborer was worthy his hire, Walton is entitled to the recognition he asks at the hands of his party, and if there is a class that can help a fellow to get there it is the press gang. Walton, we are ready to fire on any opposition that pops up, but so far we see nothing to shoot at, and here's hoping we never will.

THE dreary aspect of prison walls and other undesirable surroundings of the Executive Mansion are to be further augmented by the erection of a Negro church opposite it, unless the strenuous kick that Gov. Beckham is making thwarts the present intention. It is said that if he fails in preventing the erection of the church, Gov. Beckham will recommend to the Legislature the removal of the capital to a more desirable city.

THE unspeakable Deboe contents himself and his few followers by saying: "Opposition is not worrying me, I will be the caucus nominee and there will be a republican majority in the next Legislature." Wonder who told the old puddin' head all this or is it possible that he dreamed such boob? When the next Legislature convenes Deboe will never be thought of except perhaps by some fellow fond of a joke.

MR. MCKINLEY has been especially lenient to defaulting bank officials. He has pardoned 35 during his administration, although they are the last class of offenders that should receive clemency. The president's action seems to invite, instead of repel, a strict accountability by such officials.

HON. G. G. GILBERT corrects the report that he will not be a candidate to succeed himself in Congress, and says that he is not only a candidate, but will make a vigorous campaign for the nomination. There will doubtless be a number of candidates and a lively time may be expected.

WE have just received a copy of The Belgian, devoted to Belgian Hares and the Raising of Ginseng. S. M. Boone, Jr., of Somerset, is the editor and publisher and the publication is a credit to him typographically and otherwise. The Boone brothers are geniuses indeed.

THE Danville News will get out a daily during the Danville fair. It's a big undertaking but Editor Lillard seems to be equal to almost any occasion.

HEADACHE powders are proving as poisonous as rough on rats. Before long we will hear of people committing suicide by taking that kind of medicine.

The city democratic committee of Paris has ordered a new election held on Aug. 22 for city councilmen and city officers. The defeated candidates in the recent primary contested the election on the ground that their votes were not recounted at the official count.

The Washington Times says it is believed the President will appoint Mr. Craft Internal Revenue Collector of the Louisville district, and that in return Mr. Craft will use the office to further Mr. Boreling's candidacy for the senate. The followers of Collector Sapp threaten to make war on the republican organization in his district if the collector is removed from office.

Samuel H. Stone, who is an applicant for collector of internal revenue to succeed Mr. Charles E. Sapp, is at Frankfort seeking the endorsement of prominent republicans. Senator Deboe will go to Canton, O., this week to see President McKinley in the interest of Mr. Sapp. It is believed in Washington that Commissioner of Internal Revenue John W. Yerkes is opposed to the retention of Collector Sapp after the expiration of his term of office next month.

Moses McComas, of Grant county, recently made his will, in which he bequeaths to the democratic party of his precinct an acre of land, whereon they may celebrate to their heart's content when a democratic victory is gained. His reasons for making this queer bequest are that for some years it has been almost impossible to find a place whereon to celebrate when victories were won by his party in that neighborhood, nearly all around him being republicans, who refuse to grant the democrats a right to jollify on their premises. When he made the will he thought he was on his death bed.

THIS AND THAT.

Leslie Combs and Sam J. Roberts are for Samuel H. Stone for collector to succeed Sapp.

The Hon. S. B. Vance, one of the oldest and best known lawyers at the Henderson bar, is dead.

THE camp meeting at Preachersville came to an end Sunday night. Large crowds attended each service during the two weeks, while on Sundays people were on the grounds from several counties. Some 30 or more preachers were present and most of them conducted services one or more times. Rev. H. B. Cockrell, one of the managers, tells us he thinks that great good will result from the meeting.

Rev. Wm. Anderson, of Oklahoma City, delivered an interesting lecture at the Baptist church Saturday night. His subject was "Why we Fall," and was very forcibly presented to an attentive audience. After spending a few days with his old friends here, he will return to Oklahoma, accompanied by his mother, sister, Emma, and brother, Miller, who will make their future home in the West. It is a matter of regret that we see good citizens leave our place.

Miss Bessie Haldeman, of Louisville, entertained a number of her friends on Friday at the residence of her grandmother, Mrs. Buchanan, in honor of her birthday. Delicious refreshments were served and the little folks left to cherish pleasant memories of the occasion. They gathered the next afternoon at the home of J. W. Guest, where they spent a few hours in an exciting game of croquet, then at night they were all taken on a delightful hay ride, after which they went to their homes to lie down to pleasant dreams.

Mrs. Mary Harrington Hanna, the divorced wife of Senator Hanna's son, Daniel R. Hanna, sailed for England with her three children to avoid the service of a writ of habeas corpus, requiring her to produce her children in court.

The members of a colored Baptist church to whom the city council of Frankfort some time ago refused to grant a permit to build a church at the corner of Clinton and High streets, just opposite the Executive Mansion, served notice on Gov. Beckham and adjacent property owners, who, with the governor objected, that they would build without permission. The Negroes have employed Attorney James Andrew Scott to represent them in the matter and in the litigation that is to follow it. Legal steps will be taken to prevent the erection of the building on the ground of its being a nuisance.

The Negroes first attempted to secure the permission of the property owners, as required by city ordinance, but failed. If the church is built the governor may refuse to incorporate in his message to the general assembly a recommendation for an appropriation for new State buildings at Frankfort.

FOR SALE OR RENT.—Residence on Upper Main, diagonally opposite the College. Inquire of E. C. Walton.

THE population of the town of Junction City grew from 281 in 1890 to 995 in 1900, while Shelby City fell from 405 in 1890 to 300 in 1900.

PICNIC.—A. K. Singleton and Bud Eubanks will give a big picnic 14 miles from Waynesburg on Saturday, July 27. Go and have a good time.

HUSTONVILLE.—Come in and see the great reduction of prices on tailor-made suits I am offering for July and August. Don't buy a ready-made suit when you can have one made to order just as cheap. A. J. Adams.

ONLY TWO.—A Danville gentleman who knows whereof he affirms, says there are but two fairs this year—one at Hustonville, the other at Buffalo. He's about right but little Britain people will mob him if he doesn't look out, for an exhibition is going to be held there.

NOV 25.—This is the date fixed by Gen. W. H. Gentry and Mr. C. E. Smith for three important meetings at Crab Orchard Springs, that of the foxhound lovers, the beagle hound devotees and the bird dog fanciers. There will be fox hunting, rabbit hunting and bird hunting and the general thinks that the three sports will draw such a crowd and create so much amusement that the week will be a memorable one.

HUSTLERS.—While in Cincinnati the other day Messrs. W. G. Cowan and D. C. Allen, of the West End, got $50 or $75 in special premiums for the Hustonville fair from the following well-known firms: J. M. Cotton & Co., J. F. Saddler & Co., W. R. Crawford & Co., J. S. Kidd & Co., Green, Embury & Co. Lincoln county stock men should remember these gentlemen when they ship cattle, hogs or sheep to the Queen City. One good turn deserves another.

OLD VIOLIN.—Mr O. P. King, who helped to make music for the hop at Crab Orchard Springs Friday night, performed on a very old and a very fine violin. According to the date that can be read through on the inside, it was made in Cemonia, Italy, in 1711, making it 190 years old. Mr. King says he bought it of Will Payne, who told him he got it in Porto Rico while soldiering there. If the instrument is really as old as indicated, it is worth its weight in gold, as it is remarkably fine toned and very light.

5TH SEASON.—Mrs. H. C. Plindell, of Louisville, is spending her 54th consecutive season at Crab Orchard Springs, and is much pleased with the way Mine Host Willis is keeping it. She is 76 years old and says when she first went to the place only a few cottages appeared along the pike between what is now the office building and Calico Row. Many tender associations linger around the delightful resort to Mrs. Plindell, who says she will return each year as long as she is able to travel. She is nearly blind now and scarcely ever leaves her room.

MAY SUE.—Miss Ella Brooks, of Eubanks, was here Friday talking to several lawyers concerning a suit for damages which she may bring against W. T. Holdam and Wm. Gilbert, trustees of the Holdam's Mill public school. Miss Brooks claimed that she was engaged by the trustees to teach the school and when she went to take charge, she was informed by Mr. Holdam that Miss Isabella Ross, of Crab Orchard, had been given the position. She is greatly hurt over the treatment and it is more than likely that she will resort to law to have her feelings repaired. Miss Brooks is a very pleasant lady and the fact that she has a first class certificate proves that she is capable to teach.

25c MADRAS at 10c. Severance & Sons.

WHITE, grey and black silk gloves. Severance & Sons.

CHICKEN feed and shipstuffs cheap for cash. J. H. Baughman & Co.

THE weather is still hot and dry with no promise of a relief from either.

LOOK at Severance & Sons' ad. They mean to close out their summer goods if prices will do it.

REMEMBER that our terms are cash. Low cash prices on feed of all kinds. J. H. Baughman & Co.

THE L & N. will sell round trip tickets to Cincinnati Sunday at $1.50. Twelve hours in the city.

ELIJAH DUNBAR, father of Sidney Dunbar, of this county, died in Russell county last week, aged 82.

"CROPS in Casey are burning up on account of the drouth," said Mr. W. G. Short, of Middleburg, who was here yesterday morning to pay for his paper almost before we got up.

THE Hustonville Fair catalogues are out, and if you want one you can be accommodated at this office. They contain 58 pages of premiums, advertising matter, etc., and are worthy of your perusal.

FRIDAY'S Advocate contained a splendid write-up of Hustonville and the West End generally. Owen McIntyre is trying to get into the good graces of the Hustonville people again after assisting in perpetrating what he thought a "huge joke" concerning the change of name of the capital of the West End.

THERE are a round hundred guests at Crab Orchard Springs now and they compose as pleasant a crowd as ever gathered there. Mine Host Willis and his excellent wife are still doing everything possible to make their guests feel at home and enjoy themselves and they are succeeding admirably. A number of arrivals are booked for this week.

IT has been discovered that $60,903.93 in cash escaped taxation last year. This amount is said to have been in the banks of the various counties and was not given by the owners of that amount. Of this sum Lincoln is said to have had $255,599, Boyle, $55,118, Garrard, $175,898, Mercer, $381,680, Pulaski, $171,925. Rockcastle had no back when this assessment begun.

HAYER.—Fred Orndorff Hayer, the three months old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hayer, of Lebanon Junction, died Thursday and was brought here and buried in Buffalo Springs Cemetery Friday afternoon. The little thing had never been healthy and its constitution was too weak to stand the hot weather. Its mother was Miss Nellie Orndorff, well known here, and for whom much sympathy is felt.

THE meeting of the South Eastern Kentucky Medical Association Friday proved an interesting one throughout and wound up with a banquet at the Veranda Hotel that night, where oratory and good things were in abundance. The program published in our last issue was carried out to the letter, after which a spirited election of officers took place. Dr. I. S. Wesley, of Lancaster, was made president; Dr. J. W. Parker, of Corbin, vice-president, and Dr. W. J. Edmiston, of Crab Orchard, was again chosen secretary and treasurer. Besides the local physicians the following "pill-preeribers" were present: Drs. John C. Cooper, Livingston, J. W. Parker, Corbin, J. H. Lutz, McWhorter, W. J. Childress, Livingston, M. Pennington, Mt. Vernon, G. W. Casenbury, and Edwin Poyntz, Paint Lick, H. G. Sandlin, I. S. Wesley and Hugh Grant, Lancaster, J. C. Barker, Hustonville. The next meeting will be held at Mt. Vernon, Sept. 13.

BACK HOME.—Clarence Coleman, who has written to this paper from many foreign ports and who served Uncle Sam with distinction in the Philippines, surprised us by walking in on us Saturday. He was just returning home from 21 months' service as a soldier and he was as happy as a big sun flower both at the thought of having to answer at roll call no more and seeing his mother and sister, who live at Middleburg. Fond of curios he brought many interesting relics with him and had so much luggage that he had to pay over $10 for excess baggage from "Frisco." Mr. Coleman is a soldierly looking fellow and has grown since he went into service. He stands six feet, two inches, is as straight as an arrow and would weigh a ton or so, more or less, if he were right fat. By reading this paper and the Courier Journal regularly he has kept up with the times pretty well, politically and otherwise, and we are glad to say that he is just as good a democrat as he was before he left to serve his country. Clarence Coleman's name will continue to appear in these columns frequently as he promised to keep us well posted on the doings of his home county, the "State of Casey." In answer to our query, did you kill anybody while a soldier? he answered, "I am proud to say that I didn't take the life of even a Filipino and that I escaped injury in every way myself."

BUG FINISH at Craig & Hocker's. 15, 20 and 25c LAWN on our 10c counter this week. J. P. Jones.

TO FARMERS.—We are still running our mill at the same place. J. H. Baughman & Co.

DON'T fail to get some of those cotton covers on cleaning up counters at 5c per yard. Severance & Sons.

CARSON & PENCE will take all kinds of live stock and lead in exchange for buggies, farming material, harness, &c.

WE have waited patiently on you for the money due July 1. If you don't come around this week, well call on you. Heazley Bros.

BAD.—While Miss Jeanie Feland was riding horseback on the farm yesterday she suffered an attack of sunstroke and fell from her horse, breaking her right arm at the elbow.

J. W. JAMES, of Crab Orchard, has bought the handsome McAllister home in front of Crab Orchard Springs, and will remodel the building. He will not move into it before fall, however.

THE dining privileges of the Hustonville Fair, July 31—three days, has been let to Mrs. Josiah Bishop, who knows well how to prepare good things to eat. Nobody need go away hungry now.

BIG STABLE.—W. C. Greening is building for George E. Alford, at Hustonville, an immense livery stable, which will be completed in time for the fair. It is on the site of the old stable and will be a "daisy."

THE republicans, it is said, will meet here Saturday to consider the advisability of putting out a county ticket or a part of one. If they are wise in their day and generation they will decide to let well enough alone.

THE Louisville Store announces this issue that it is going to close out its store in Stanford, which will be unwelcome news to its many customers who have gotten their money's worth there. Read the "closing out" bargains they are offering.

RICH FIND.—J. E. Scott, a blacksmith at Buena Vista, while working in his garden dug up a box containing $1,600. The money was black from exposure and had evidently been buried a long time.

HELD WITHOUT BAIL.—Alfred Bright, who fatally shot Sam Blake, more, also colored, at Crab Orchard last Tuesday, had his examining trial yesterday and was held without bail. A bad case was made out against him, and it is not improbable that Lincoln county will have a hanging soon after next circuit court convenes. Hon. Fontaine Fox Bobbitt represented Bright.

THE following shows the number of school children in the counties named and the amount that will be expended on them in public schools this scholastic year: Anderson, 3,354, $8,882.50; Boyle, 4,295, $10,737.50; Casey, 5,348, $13,357.50; Garrard, 3,977, $9,942.50; Jessamine, 4,120, $10,300; Lincoln, 5,931, $14,827.50; Mercer, 4,704, $11,760; Pulaski, 11,150, $27,650; Rockcastle, 4,354, $10,882.50; Wayne, 3,575, $13,917.50.

QUESTION ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliusness. Doctors were scarce and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of indigestible food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's Prize Almanac. For sale at Penny's Drug Store, Stanford.

More than 20,000,000 of checks are used annually in the United States, and of this amount something like 15,000 are "raised," the loss falling on the drawer, for the drawer of a check is chargeable with the amount paid on it, provided his signature is genuine, no matter for what amount he has previously filled it in.
